

Council Meeting Minutes

Monday April 22, 2019

Attendees: Jason Schlieckau, Johnnie Jacobson, Chris Frodel, Janelle Dunlavy

Meeting was called to order at 6:15pm by President Chris Frodel

Devotions led by Chris

Breah Klemp was guest in attendance and presented to Chris, Jason and Johnnie who were present at that time, a request on behalf of a women's faith based organization she started, Raise Em Up. Breah explained the hope of the group is to gather together moms, and young women in the community and offer a forum to have book study and discussion about faith, and an assortment of other issues that we as young women and/or moms may face. Breah was requesting to use EKLC as a meeting place on Sunday Evenings once a month. Motion made by Jason to allow Raise Em Up to meet at EKLC on Sunday Evenings, Seconded by Johnnie. Motion Passed.  After further review, there were not enough in attendance to meet quorum on this vote. An email was sent the following day to vote on this request.

Motion made by Johnnie to accept the minutes from March as written, seconded by Jason

Joe presented the financials to the group. A few questions on expenses were answered by Joe. Was discussed that Quickbooks was purchased/donated to the church for the year and Holly and Joe will begin setting up the chart of accounts and utilizing this to do the financials. Janelle made a motion to accept the financials as presented, seconded by Jason.

Council reviewed reports presented: Presidents, Pastors, & Aagot Borge . Motion made by Johnnie to accept the reports, Seconded by Janelle.

Old Business:

Church Security: Pastor has spoken with a member who is a Jefferson County Police Officer. Plan for Sept to have them do an informational meeting on general church security.

Parsonage Tree: Work is complete and mostly cleaned up. Will finish clean-up of remaining. Thanks to all those that helped with the clean-up.

175th Planning Update: Stoughton Parade is confirmed. Plans will be communicated in May to those wanting to participate in the parade. Sign-up sheet is full for riders on the float. There may be too many and may have to address. Jason will work on designing fliers to be handed out along the parade route by walkers.

Vanco Online Giving: This is getting set up for online giving as an option for members. Joe is to finish set up and review with Pastor and/or Chris.

New Business:

Initial discussion on updating our website. Jason will look into what is needed/wanted and how we can accomplish that economically.

Next Meeting: Monday, May, 20th 6PM

Being no further business, Motion to Adjourn 7:18 PM by Janelle, Seconded by Jason.

Closed with Lords Prayer
